

4. How would you describe the primary focus for the women in these verses?

5. In light of these verses, how do women develop a Christian witness in our communities?

6. How has the role of women in the world changed since the days of Paul?
Regarding current roles for women, what if anything should be changed?

"May God give us guidance and may we respond to wisdom from above, so that our hope may be renewed and our blessings treasured." - Ravi Zacharias

Introduction

1. Older women _____ by _____

"Reverent in behaviour"

"Not slanderers"

"Not slaves to much wine"

"Teach and train what is good"

2. Younger women _____ by _____

"Love their husbands & their children"

Pastor Deric Bartlett
Sermon Notes (con't)

“Be self-controlled”

“Pure”

“Working at home”

“Kind”

“Submissive to their own husbands”

3. _____ women are _____ by God's glory

Questions

Titus 2:3-5

Ice Breaker: Since the beginning of time, women have had a significant role and have impacted many pivotal events in history. The “Leading Ladies” in my own life have been incredibly influential.

How have the women in your world impacted your life?

1. What is at the root of proper Christian living? (see v.1)

2. What does this passage have to say about how the older women are to influence the younger?

3. What vices does Paul warn older women about and how might they combat them?