

3. What can we know about our purpose on earth from these verses?

4. Knowing all this, how should we change our attitude toward this life?

5. How should the truth from this passage influence how men live in the world today?

"A father acts on behalf of his children by working, providing, intervening, struggling and suffering for them. In doing so, he really stands in their place. He is not an isolated individual, but incorporates the selves of several people in his own self." - Dietrich Bonhoefer
